HOLD SECRET MILITARY CONFERENCE ON VIET NAM ATTACK; CCP GIVING FINANCIAL AID TO BURMESE REDS

SOVIET, CCP VIET MINH REPRESENTATIVES MEET -- Hong Kong Kung-shang Jih-pao, 14 Aug 50

Taihoku, 13 August -- According to information from behind the enemy lines, a secret military conference was held at Nan-ning, Kwangsi, on 9 August 1950 by representatives of both the CCP and Viet Minh with a number of high-ranking Soviet officials to discuss plans of attack in Viet Nam.

These Soviet officials, headed by Lo-chia-t'e-fu /Lochat'yev?/ were flown to Nan-ning on 7 August 1950 on a Soviet plane. After the meeting, they left on an inspection tour of the China - Viet Nam border between Ssu-ling, Kwangsi, and Chen-nan-kuan /possibly Nam Quan/, Viet Nam.

It is also reported that the Nan-ning airfield is now being speedily reconstructed under supervision of Soviet technicians.

CCP AIDING BURMESE COMMUNISTS -- Hong Kong Kung-shang Jih-pao, 11 Aug 50

Rangoon, 9 August -- It is reliably reported that the Chinese Communists are secretly aiding the Burma White Flag Communists to help them undermine the power of the anti-Communist elements in Burma. The aid, it is said, is generally financial.

The White Flag Communists have set up a powerful transmitting station somewhere north of Prome to maintain liaison with the Chinese Communists. The station was established to overcome the difficulties of maintaining direct contact over the mountains separating the two countries.

50X1-HUM

According to a number of dispatches received from the Communist-controlled areas in west-central Burma, many Chinese Communist representatives have been sent to these areas. The authenticity of these reports, however, has been refuted by another source which claimed that they are overseas Chinese disguised as CCP representatives to deceive the local inhabitants.

It is generally believed that the Chinese Communists will not attack Burma because it is felt that the present anti-Communist government can be overthrown without bloodshed by manipulating Burmese Communists into key positions in the government.
